

SENATOR DeCAMP: Senator Murphy, I must fight you to the ends of the Earth on this. I think the bill is an important lesson. Over the years we'll get one piece of legislation after another. Gradually we get them handed out from Congress. They cost a fortune, but nobody knows it. It's like getting a tranquilizer. One day it's a million. The next day it's ten million. The next day it's a hundred million. As he said, this little program he's talking about is $800 million right here. We could have done it by a resolution. Senator Murphy chose to use this method. I think it's valuable. Before you vote to kill it I would urge you to vote and remember one other thing. You will have an opportunity in the future to vote again on this. Somewhere from the Congress, or somewhere in here, whether it's six months from now or two years from now, these very proposals are coming down the pike. If you vote to kill it now, stick with it in the future. Stick with it in the future. You'll get your chance. Mr. President, I move to kill it.

CLERK: Mr. President, the motion is to indefinitely postpone LB 48.

SENATOR DWORAK: Would you record your vote on the kill motion on LB 48.

CLERK: Senator Don Dworak voting aye.

SENATOR DWORAK: Has everyone voted? Record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 6 nays on the motion to kill the bill, Mr. President.

SENATOR DWORAK: LB 48 is indefinitely postponed. LB 502. Senator Keyes.

CLERK: Read title to LB 502. The bill was first read on February 22nd, Mr. President. It was referred to the Banking, Commerce and Insurance Committee. The bill was advanced to General File with committee amendments.

SENATOR DWORAK: Senator Newell.

SENATOR NEWELL: I have a question of the Chair, if I might. It's a procedural question. The bill, on our sheet, says it's from the Revenue Committee. However, the Clerk read that it was referred to the Banking, Commerce and Insurance Committee. I'm curious just exactly which committee that came out of.

SENATOR DWORAK: Senator Newell, the Clerk advises that the bill was introduced by the Revenue Committee, but referred to the Banking and Commerce Committee. So, Senator DeCamp, would you give us the committee amendments, please. Senator, that's really not the point here. That's a Reference Committee matter. Senator Duis, your light is on.

SENATOR DUIS: Mr. President, I beg your pardon. I turned it on. I thought they were.... What was the question?

SENATOR DWORAK: We have a bill introduced by the Revenue Committee which was referred to the Banking, Commerce and Insurance Committee. We have committee amendments on it. If Senator DeCamp, Chairman of the Banking, Commerce and Insurance Committee, would present the committee amendments. Senator Duis.
